CNA SALUTES ITS 2006 HIGH PERFORMANCE AGENCY AWARD WINNERS

Cohen-Seltzer, Inc. recognized with top honors.

[May 29] - CNA announced this year's Most Valuable Partner (MVP) award winners during annual High Performance Agency [®] meetings held recently in Florida. Located in Fort Washington, PA, Cohen-Seltzer, Inc. received the award for its focus on profitable business and high premium growth. As part of the award, CNA made a charitable contribution to The Franklin Institute on Cohen-Seltzer's behalf. "As a Third Generation company with strong roots in the Philadelphia area for over 80 years, we felt that the Franklin Institute deserved the contribution. They have worked diligently to infuse new vitality into our local economy," said Daniel Seltzer, President of Cohen-Seltzer, Inc.

"At CNA, our agents and brokers are the backbone of our business. We welcome the opportunity to pay special recognition to those high performing agents while giving something back to local communities where we do business," said Stephen Lilienthal, chairman and chief executive officer of CNA insurance companies.
